

SELF – CERTIFICATION EXAMINATION

The examination you are being linked to is a self-certification examination.

YOUR RESPONSES ARE SUBJECT TO VERIFICATION

Please keep in mind that all information provided will be subject to verification at any time during the examination process, hiring process, and even after gaining employment. Anyone who misrepresents his/her experience and/or education will be subject to adverse consequences, which could include the following actions:

- Removal from the examination process
- Removal from the certification list(s)
- Loss of State employment
- Loss of rights to compete in any future State examinations

Government Code Section 18935 states:

"The Board may refuse to examine or, after examination, may refuse to declare as an eligible or may withhold or withdraw from certification, prior to appointment, anyone who comes under any of the following categories:

j. Has intentionally attempted to practice any deception or fraud in his or her application, in his or her examination, or in securing his or her eligibility."

By completing the examination, you certify and understand that the information provided by you on the questionnaire is true and complete to the best of your knowledge and contains no willful misrepresentation or falsifications. You also understand that if it is discovered that you have made any false representations, you will be removed from the list(s) resulting from the examination and may not be allowed to complete in future examinations for State employment. If already hired from the result of the examination, you may have adverse action taken against you, which could result in dismissal.
