Mental Health – Cumulative Compliance Trends

As of July 1, 2013

The pie chart (bottom, left) identifies the current cumulative compliance data for the Mental Health Remedial Plan. These percentages are derived using the compliance data from each Mental Health monitor for Round 2 audits. The bar graph chart (below, right) demonstrates the historical cumulative compliance progress made to date, through the first two rounds of audits. Currently, the cumulative average increase in substantial compliance from one round to the next is 8.9%.

It should be noted that the last Mental Health Expert audit occurred in May 2010. Since then, a new set of Mental Health Experts have been assigned to monitor this plan and are working toward revising the existing Mental Health audit tool. Once this has been accomplished, the Mental Health Experts will then begin to conduct their annual auditing cycles.

Source Documents for Compliance Data – For Round 1: Compliance data obtained from the Mental Health Experts’ 2008/2009 Site Visit Summary and the Office of the Special Master’s revised audit reports for the six audited sites. For Round 2: Compliance data obtained from the Mental Health Experts’ five draft audit reports for their second round of audits and the Office of the Special Master’s six draft reports for its second round of audits.
