

CORCORAN

Corcoran State Prison

Corcoran is California's farming capital of California, known for harvesting crops such as cotton, corn, tomatoes, pistachios and wheat. The city is home to a small, diverse community, that takes pride in its small town festivities and events. Corcoran celebrates its annual Cotton Festival, as well as the SummerFest Chili and Salsa Cook-off. The Christmas Parade each year brings the small community together, as they gather in one of their many beautiful parks.

Accessibility

Amtrack stops at Corcoran station, making commuting and travel accessible to those who work or live in Corcoran. Whether traveling to the Sierra Nevada or to one of the coastal Beaches, Corcoran is in the heart of the map. Neighboring cities are Fresno, San Luis Obispo, Visalia and Bakersfield.

ATTRACTIONS

- Agriculture
- Annual Cotton Festival
- SummerFest
- Beautiful Parks
- Corcoran Museum

KNOWN FOR

- Agriculture
- Diversity

STATS

- Population: 23,320 (2013)
- Area: 7.466 mi

ON THE MAP

- 49 miles south of Fresno
- 84 miles from San Luis Obispo
- 21 miles from Visalia
- 60 miles north of Bakersfield

