Legal Standard for Parole Hearing Decisions: The Board is required to base its decisions upon whether the incarcerated person poses a current, unreasonable risk of danger to the public. In making this decision, the Board considers the incarcerated person's rehabilitative programming, behavior during their incarceration, criminal history, and other evidence-based risk factors relevant to determining whether the person can live in society without committing more antisocial acts. The Board may not base its decision solely on the commitment offense. (See In re Vicks (2013) 56 Cal.4th 274; In re Lawrence (2008) 44 Cal.4th 1181.)
