Long Term Offenders (LTOs)

- The number of LTOs being released was steadily increasing
- Division of Rehabilitative Programs (DRP) recognized the need for program expansion which would serve the significantly increasing LTO population
- Per Board of Parole Hearings (BPH), approximately 80% of the LTOs granted parole required or requested reentry recovery housing and programming as a part of their parole plans
- CDCR expanded current community-based contracts to provide non-treatment reentry recovery housing and LTO specific programing

8

Services Specific to Long Term Offenders (LTOs)

DRP conducted research to develop services based on LTO needs:

- Lifer Advisory Group February 2016
- Board of Parole Hearings May 2016
- Community and In-Prison Programs
- Parole Service Centers & Transitional Housing Programs
- DAPO Input
- BPH Grantee/Lifer Workgroup (current)

Life Advisory Committee: Recommendations

Community Based Services (parole)

- Program separate from non-lifers
- Availability of housing and additional resources
- Mentor/sponsor groups that help within the community
- Increased access to community programs upon release
- Incorporate the family/friends support system during parole

10

Long Term Offender Reentry Recovery (LTORR)

11

Long Term Offender Reentry Recovery (LTORR)

- LTORR is a voluntary 180-day program that provides residency and support services to participants that enable successful reintegration into their communities. (Services may be extended for an additional 185 days if necessary.)
- The program offers life skill services that focus on Lifer or Long-Term Offender (LTOs) needs such as employment, job search and placement training, stress management, victim awareness, computer supported literacy, and life skills.
- Substance Abuse education and a 52-week certified domestic violence program are also provided if needed. The program provides peer-driven support, assistance, and guidance to newly released LTOs.

Long Term Offender Reentry Recovery (LTORR)

- Individualized Case Management Plans (CMP)
- Programs help supervised persons find permanent housing
- Assistance in finding and keeping gainful employment
- Introduction to local support services
- Individualized Discharge Plans for each supervised person to ensure successful reintegration into the community

13

Long Term Offender Reentry Recovery (LTORR)

Eligibility Requirements: All participants subject to the supervision by the Division of Adult Parole Operations (DAPO) are eligible for placement in the LTORR; priority is given to those that have served indeterminate life or long-term sentences.

The participant population served under the LTORR includes, but not limited to:

- Long Term Offenders who had been sentenced to life terms
- Participants on active parole who have been referred by DAPO
- Penal Code (PC) 290 registrants who are Jessica's Law compliant or if the county where they are located has a Jessica's Law Stay order
- Serious and violent offenders (e.g. PC 1192.7 and 667.5)
