Impact of the COVID-19 Public Health Emergency on the Behavioral Health of Children/Youth Involved in the Juvenile Justice System

Danitza Pantoja, Psy.D, Councilmember, Council on Criminal Justice and Behavioral Health

David Diehl, Ed.D., Coordinator of Student Support Services, Monterey Peninsula Unified School District

Daniel Lee, Psy.D, CSP, Deputy Superintendent of Equity, California Department of Education

Panel Discussion Questions

1. In your observation/experience, what impact(s) has the pandemic had on children/youth who have behavioral health needs and who are involved in the juvenile justice system?
2. As we continue to move through the pandemic, and many schools are expecting to return to full in-person learning, what do you anticipate will be the unique needs of these children/youth?
3. What should schools and other entities that support student behavioral health do to prepare for the return of students in the fall to ensure these unique needs are being addressed with cultural humility?
4. What are the new funding opportunities of which you are aware and how do you think these funds may best be leveraged to meet these unique needs?
5. Is there any other advice/guidance you think would be good for the Council to be aware of as we prepare recommendations for our 2021 Legislative Report? What recommendations would you make to the Legislature?
