

Senate Bill 132, Transgender Respect, Agency and Dignity Act
 As of January 1, 2025

Current Incarcerated Population

Identifying as Transgender, Non-binary, and Intersex	Count
Total Persons in the Incarcerated Population	2,105

Note: Incarcerated population includes persons in the in-custody population, in the custody of another state or federal institution, on escape, or temporarily released to court or hospital.

Since Implementation of Senate Bill 132

Transgender, Non-Binary, and Intersex requests to house at Female Institutions/Community Facilities	Count
Total Persons Who Requested to Transfer	849
Persons Approved for Transfer	45
Persons Denied	104
Persons Who Changed Their Mind (During Institution Classification Committee Review)	120
Requests Pending Institution Classification Committee Review	197
Persons Transferred Back (Voluntarily)	9
Persons Transferred Back (Involuntarily)	2

Transgender, Non-Binary, and Intersex requests to house at Male Institutions/Community Facilities	Count
Total Persons Who Requested to Transfer	65
Persons Approved for Transfer	4
Persons Denied	11
Persons Who Changed Their Mind (During Institution Classification Committee Review)	7
Requests Pending Institution Classification Committee Review	2
Persons Transferred Back (Voluntarily)	2
Persons Transferred Back (Involuntarily)	0

Senate Bill 132: the Transgender Respect, Agency and Dignity Act; became effective January 1, 2021. Data is provided to the Office of Research by Female Offender Programs and Services. Transgender, Intersex, and Non-Binary identification is self reported by incarcerated persons.