

Senate Bill 132, Transgender Respect, Agency and Dignity Act
as of September 9, 2026

Current Incarcerated Population

Table 1: Identifying as Transgender, Non-binary, and Intersex	Count
Total Persons in the Incarcerated Population	2,609

Note: Incarcerated population includes persons in the in-custody population, in the custody of another state or federal institution, on escape, or temporarily released to court or hospital.

Since Implementation of Senate Bill from January 1, 2021, through September 9, 2026

Table 2: Transgender, Non-Binary, and Intersex requests to house at Female Institutions/Community Facilities	Count	Currently Incarcerated
Total Persons Who Requested to Transfer	1,109	841
Persons Approved for Transfer	49	36
Persons Denied	140	128
Persons Who Changed Their Mind (During Institution Classification Committee Review)	147	120
Requests Pending Institution Classification Committee Review	230	230
Persons Who Did Not Reach the Institution Classification Committee Review*	553	337
Persons Transferred Back (Voluntarily)	10	10
Persons Transferred Back (Involuntarily)	3	3

*An individual would not reach Institution Classification Committee Review for reasons such as: Death During Process, Parole Prior to Review, Refusal or Withdrawal Before Review.

Table 3: Transgender, Non-Binary, and Intersex requests to house at Male Institutions/Community Facilities	Count	Currently Incarcerated
Total Persons Who Requested to Transfer	89	57
Persons Approved for Transfer	7	5
Persons Denied	12	11
Persons Who Changed Their Mind (During Institution Classification Committee Review)	8	6
Requests Pending Institution Classification Committee Review	2	2
Persons Who Did Not Reach the Institution Classification Committee Review*	62	35
Persons Transferred Back (Voluntarily)	2	2
Persons Transferred Back (Involuntarily)	0	0

*An individual would not reach Institution Classification Committee Review for reasons such as: Death During Process, Parole Prior to Review, Refusal or Withdrawal Before Review.

Senate Bill 132, the Transgender Respect, Agency and Dignity Act, became effective January 1, 2021. Data is provided to the Office of Research by Female Offender Programs and Services. Transgender, Intersex, and Non-Binary identification is self reported by incarcerated persons.

The categories are not mutually exclusive, as some individuals are counted in more than one reported category. Therefore, the totals for each category will not equal the total number of people who submitted a request.